

I am sending a request to review the restructuring of XO Communications, Inc. I am a shareholder. It seems that their restructuring could not be legal - that is to say - soliciting funds from other sources and giving them in return all the common stock that is now held by shareholders and leaving us with zero.